

I consider the behavior of Sinclair Broadcasting to be a direct attack on American democracy and on the integrity of journalism. I formally request that the FCC adopt rules which protect local stations from the political manipulations of their corporate owners.